

Section	Change
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-02-01 Salary Administration Procedures – Definitions	Removed: Definition of “Job evaluation committee” as it is no longer referenced in the chapter. Added: “Targeted market equity increase” to distinguish legislatively authorized equity programs from standard equity adjustments. Clarified: Definitions for “performance increase,” “promotional increase,” “reclassification adjustment,” “temporary increase,” and “salary range” were updated for consistency with current HR practices. These changes provide clearer guidance and reflect evolving compensation strategies, particularly around market competitiveness and legislative involvement.
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-02-15 Salary Administration Procedures – Equity Increase	Added: New subsection defining “targeted market equity increases,” which may only be granted when authorized by the legislature. This change allows agencies to proactively address workforce challenges such as recruitment and retention in critical roles, while maintaining legislative oversight and fiscal responsibility.
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-02-18 Salary Administration Procedures – Bonus	Clarified: Updated legal references from “chapters” to “sections” for statutory accuracy.
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-05-01.1 Recruitment and Selection – Definitions	Revised: Definition of “promotion” now includes advancement to positions with a substantially higher level of responsibility, not just higher pay grades.
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-05-04 Recruitment and Selection – Notifying	Removed: Requirement to submit vacancy notifications “prior to beginning the recruiting effort” to HRMS. Added: Requirement to use the statewide approved applicant tracking system for vacancy announcements.

Section	Change
	These changes align with current digital recruitment practices and ensure consistency and transparency in job postings.
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-05-05.2 Recruitment and Selection – Temporary employees and interns	Clarified: Temporary employees and interns may be considered internal applicants if hired through an open and competitive process. Removed: Two-year internship eligibility window to be considered as an internal applicant.
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-05-07 Recruitment and Selection – Veterans’ preference	Clarified: Veterans’ preference applies specifically to external recruitment.
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-05-08 Recruitment and Selection – Vacancy Announcement	Updated: Required content now includes remote work feasibility, EEO and accessibility statements, background check requirements, and optional preferred qualifications. Removed: Internal-use-only position numbers and outdated language. These changes enhance transparency and reflect modern workplace expectations. Updated requirements to the vacancy announcements to remove outdated requirements and add additional requirements to be included in the job announcement to provide necessary information to potential applicants, promoting transparency and clarity in the recruitment process.
N.D. Admin. Code § 4-07-12 Annual Leave – Chapter Title and overview	Updated: Title now includes “New Hire Leave.” Added: Section overview 4-07-12-13 now includes “or an Enhanced Annual Leave Accrual” to reflect the addition of the enhanced accrual levels. Includes new section 4-07-12-14 to include “New Hire Leave”.

Section	Change
	These changes reflect the broader applicability of the chapter and introduce new leave provisions authorized under House BILL 1170 passed during the most recent 69 th legislative session that resulted in changes to NDCC 54-06-14 .

4-07-02-01. Definitions.

The terms used throughout this title have the same meaning as in North Dakota Century Code chapter 54-44.3, and sections 54-06-30 and 54-06-31, except:

1. "Appointing authority" has the same meaning as provided in North Dakota Century Code section 54-44.3-02.
2. "Class" or "classification" means a group of positions, regardless of location, which are enough alike in duties and responsibilities to be called by the same descriptive title, to be given the same pay range under similar conditions, and to require substantially the same qualifications.
3. "Classification plan" means the listing of all the classes that have been established, the description for those classes, and the process and procedures developed to maintain the plan.
4. "Equity increase" means a salary increase provided to a classified employee to mitigate either a serious internal agency inequity or a documented external market condition.
5. "General salary increase" means a salary increase provided to classified employees by specific legislative appropriation.
6. "Hiring rate" means the salary level assigned to an employee upon initial employment with an agency.
- ~~7. "Job evaluation committee" is the committee responsible to evaluate, maintain, and ensure the consistency of job evaluations of the North Dakota classification system. The job evaluation committee shall be made up of professional human resource staff from human resource management services and state agencies designated by the director of human resource management services.~~

7. "Pay grade" means the number assigned to a classification which corresponds with one specific range of pay rates.
8. "Performance increase" means a salary increase provided to a classified employee in recognition of documented performance which is consistently superior or which consistently exceeds documented performance standards.
9. "Probationary increase" means a salary increase provided to a classified employee upon the successful completion of their applicable probationary period.
10. "Promotional increase" means a salary increase provided to a classified employee when the employee is assigned to a regular, classified position in a different class which has a higher pay grade or which reflects a substantially higher level of responsibility than the employee's previous position, ~~and the assignment is not a result of a reclassification of the employee's position.~~
11. "Reclassification adjustment" means a salary adjustment change applied to a classified employee to ensure salary alignment when the employee's position is reallocated to a different classification that has a different pay grade.
12. "Responsibility level or workload increase" means a salary increase provided to a classified employee when either of the following conditions are met:
 - a. The level of duties and responsibilities assigned to the employee is permanently changed, is documented, and is independent of any change in classification.
 - b. A substantial, documented, increase in workload is assigned to a position.
13. "Salary range" means the range of pay rates, from minimum to maximum that are assigned to a pay grade, ~~and which are often divided into quartiles for reference.~~
14. "Temporary increase" means a salary increase provided to a classified employee when the employee is assigned temporarily to perform a higher level of responsibilities or increased workload on an acting or interim basis.
15. "Targeted market equity increase" means a salary increase to be granted only when the legislature has defined and approved implementation of an equity program to address talent attraction, retention challenges or strategic market alignment.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective July 1, 2004; July 1, 2014; July 1, 2022; 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(1), 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-02. Scope of chapter.

This chapter applies to all state agencies, departments, institutions, and boards and commissions that employ individuals in positions classified by human resource management services, except those agencies headed by an elected official, and except those institutions in the university system. Elected officials and institutions in the university system may, at their option, agree to the application of chapter 4-07-02 to their specific agency. Sections 4-07-02-05, 4-07-02-06, 4-07-02-12, and 4-07-02-17 apply to local government agencies that employ individuals in positions classified by human resource management services.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective November 1, 1996; July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(1), 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-03. Purpose of chapter.

The purpose of this chapter is to ensure that the salaries of classified employees are paid in a manner consistent with the state's classification plan, its compensation plan, and its salary administration policy.

History: Effective March 1, 1991.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(1), 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-04. Relationship to available funds.

All salary actions under this chapter are subject to the availability of appropriated funds. No person may take a salary action under this chapter if it were to cause an agency to exceed its budget authorization.

History: Effective March 1, 1991.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(1), 54-44.3-12(7), 54-44.3-12.1, 54-44.3-15

4-07-02-05. Salaries must be within the assigned salary range.

Human resource management services shall assign a pay grade and a salary range to each approved class in the classification plan. Unless otherwise provided by human resource management services, the salary level of a classified employee must be within the assigned salary range.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(1), 54-44.3-12(7), 54-44.3-15

4-07-02-06. Exceptions.

Exceptions to the requirements of chapter 4-07-02 normally require prior written approval from the director of human resource management services. In emergency situations exceptions may be provided verbally. Appointing authorities shall describe their justification for the exception and the impact that denying the exception would have on the agency or the state. Written documentation in justification of the exception must be provided by the appointing authority at the earliest practical time following a verbal approval.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1), 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-07. General salary increase.

A general salary increase must be provided in accordance with any specific guidelines or requirements as appropriated by the legislative assembly.

History: Effective March 1, 1991.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-08. Hiring rate.

When establishing an entry salary, an appointing authority should consider the employee's job-related qualifications, the agency's ability to recruit qualified employees, the overall relationship of state employees' salaries to market salaries, and internal equity with existing employees' salaries. In determining a starting salary for an applicant who is a current employee of another state agency, an appointing authority also should consider equity between the state agencies.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective July 1, 2004; April 1, 2020.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-09. Documents needed for hiring rate above the first quartile.

Repealed effective July 1, 2004.

4-07-02-10. Probationary increase.

An appointing authority may grant an increase of up to five percent upon an employee's successful completion of a probationary period. The size of the increase may vary depending on factors that include performance, internal equity, and budget appropriations.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-11. Responsibility level or workload increase.

An appointing authority may grant a responsibility level or workload salary increase if all of the following requirements are met:

1. The increase does not exceed twenty percent per biennium for an employee.
2. Consideration is given to the effect granting the increase would have on internal equity.
3. The change in workload or responsibility is documented and on file within the agency.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-12. Reclassification adjustment.

An appointing authority may make an adjustment to a salary as a result of a reclassification according to the following:

1. If the pay grade is higher following a reclassification action, then an increase up to five percent above the minimum of the new salary range may be provided. The salary must be at least equivalent to the minimum of the new salary range.
2. If the pay grade is lower following a reclassification action, then either of the following apply:
 - a. The employee's salary may remain the same if it is within the lower salary range.
 - b. The employee's salary may be reduced to within the lower range to equitably relate to the salaries of other employees in the same or related classes.
3. If the employee's salary is above the maximum of the salary range for the new job grade, then either of the following apply:
 - a. The salary of the employee may remain above the new maximum when the reclassification is a result of a program change, a reorganization, or is a result of a management need not associated with the employee's performance. The salary may remain above the maximum as long as the employee remains in the classification. No further increases in salary may be granted the employee as long as the salary remains above the maximum, except those legislatively authorized.
 - b. The salary must be reduced at least to the maximum of the new range if the lower classification results from the removal of duties and responsibilities from the employee as a result of substandard performance or for disciplinary reasons.

4. If the pay grade is not changed, no salary adjustment shall be made.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-07, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-13. Promotional increase.

An appointing authority may grant a salary increase when an employee is promoted, if all of the following requirements are met:

1. The employee must be paid at least the minimum of the new salary range.
2. Consideration must be given to the internal salary relationships that would exist in the agency if the increase were to be given.
3. The magnitude of the change in jobs is considered.

History: Effective March 1, 1991.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-14. Performance increase.

An appointing authority may grant an increase for performance if all of the following requirements are met:

1. A proper performance appraisal process is used by the agency pursuant to chapter 4-07-10.
2. The increase does not exceed five percent in any twelve-month period for an employee.
3. Consideration is given to internal salary equity of other agency employees.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective November 1, 1996.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-15. Equity increase.

1. An appointing authority may grant an equity increase if all of the following requirements are met:

a. The increase does not exceed twenty percent per biennium for an employee.

b. At the time the increase is granted, documentation must be submitted to human resource management services that includes all of the following:

(1) A definition of the inequity.

(2) An explanation of what created the inequity.

(3) A statement that an additional inequity will not result.

(4) The relevant available market data in cases of external equity.

c. The agency must consider the overall relationship of state employees' salaries to market salaries and avoid creating internal inequities.

2. Targeted market equity increases are distinct from other equity increases in that they are only authorized when the legislature has defined and approved the implementation of an equity program to proactively address talent attraction, retention challenges or strategic market alignment for one or more categories of state employees. Specific guidelines for administering any targeted market equity increase program will be determined by human resources management services.

History: Effective March 1, 1991; amended effective July 1, 2004; 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-16. Temporary increase.

An appointing authority may grant a temporary increase if all of the following requirements are met:

1. An increase may not be given for a temporary situation of less than thirty days.
2. An employee may not continue to receive a temporary increase for more than thirty days after the special circumstances ceased to exist.
3. Consideration is given to the magnitude of the change in responsibility level.

History: Effective March 1, 1991.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-17. Adjustment following assignment to a lower pay grade.

When an employee is assigned to a position at a lower pay grade, and the employee's salary is above the maximum of the new grade, then either of the following may result:

1. The salary may remain above the new maximum when the assignment results from a program change, reorganization, or other management need not associated with the employee's performance. No further increases may be granted as long as the salary remains above the maximum.
2. The salary may be reduced to at least the maximum of the new range if the assignment resulted from substandard performance or other disciplinary reasons.

History: Effective March 1, 1991.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-01, 54-44.3-12(7)

4-07-02-18. Bonuses.

A recruitment, retention, or performance bonus may be provided according to North Dakota Century Code ~~chapters~~ sections 54-06-30 and 54-06-31.

History: Effective July 1, 2004; amended effective 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-06-31, 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-02-19. Recruitment bonus.

A recruitment bonus may be provided by an agency if the employee receiving the bonus was not employed by a state agency immediately preceding employment with the hiring agency, except when a recruitment bonus is provided to an employee for a referral program outlined in the agency's recruitment policy. If application of this rule would result in significant impact on the agency or negative fiscal consequences to the state, an exception may be sought under section 4-07-02-06.

History: Effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-06-31, 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-02-20. Retention bonus.

A retention bonus may be given as an incentive to retain an employee in state government unless the employee is leaving to work for another state agency. If application of this rule would result in significant impact on the agency or negative fiscal consequences to the state, an exception may be sought under section 4-07-02-06.

History: Effective July 1, 2004.

4-07-12-01. Scope of chapter.

This chapter applies to all state and local government agencies, departments, institutions, and boards and commissions, except where indicated, that employ individuals in positions classified by human resource management services.

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective November 1, 1996; July 1, 2004; 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-06-14; 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-02. Definitions.

The terms used throughout this chapter have the same meaning as in North Dakota Century Code chapters 54-06 and 54-44.3 and section 54-52-01, except:

1. "Annual leave" means an approved absence from work with pay allowed under an authorized accrual schedule.
2. "Regular employee" means a person who has completed the probationary period and who is in a position classified by human resource management services.
3. "New hire leave" means a separate leave balance to use for an approved absence from work with pay within the first year of employment.
4. "Reinstatement" means a personnel action that involves the reemployment of a previous employee in a classified position as defined by chapter 4-07-05.
5. "Interagency transfer" means a personnel action that results in the reassignment of an employee from one position to a different position in another state agency and that does not result in a break in service.

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective November 1, 1996; July 1, 2004; 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-06-14; 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-03. Annual leave accrual.

Employees eligible for annual leave begin to accrue leave from the date of hire.

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective November 1, 1996; 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-06-14; 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-04. Annual leave accrual schedule.

1. State agencies are advised that the following annual leave accrual schedule is required, except as referenced in subsection 2 herein, for use by each state agency subject to this chapter:

Years of Service	Hours Earned Per Month
Zero through three	Eight
Four through seven	Ten
Eight through twelve	Twelve
Thirteen through eighteen	Fourteen
Over eighteen	Sixteen

2. Effective after April 30, 2026, a state agency may grant, at hire, annual leave within the parameters of eight to sixteen hours per month, which may exceed the amount based on tenure of employment, if all the following requirements are met:
 - a. The position being hired for was previously identified as a hard-to-fill occupation pursuant to the requirements set forth in North Dakota Century Code section 54-06-31.
 - b. Prior to granting an enhanced annual leave accrual schedule, the state agency has a written policy in place identifying eligible positions or occupations and provisions for providing and receiving enhanced annual leave accrual. The written policy must address the specific positions that qualify for enhanced annual leave accrual and why the positions have been identified as hard-to-fill.
 - c. The state agency has filed the written policy with human resource management services.

~~A local government agency subject to the North Dakota merit system adopting or using a different accrual schedule shall promptly file a copy of that schedule with human resource management services.~~

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective July 1, 2004; July 1, 2008; 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-06-14, 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-05. Accrual for ~~employment for a fractional~~ of a months.

An employee accrues annual leave for ~~being employed~~ employment for a fraction of a month. The number of annual leave hours earned by an employee for employment for a fraction of a month must be in proportion to the total number of straight time hours the employee actually worked compared to ~~the total number of normal~~ working hours in the month.

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-06-14; 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-06. Annual leave taken in fifteen-minute increments.

Repealed effective January 1, 1993.

4-07-12-07. Approval required.

Generally, a request to use annual leave must be approved before the employee is authorized to take the leave. A leave request may be denied if the employee's absence would unduly disrupt the operations or services of the agency.

History: Effective September 1, 1992.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-08. Annual leave limit.

No more than two hundred forty hours of accrued annual leave may be carried forward beyond April thirtieth of each year. If a political subdivision that employs individuals in positions classified by human resource management services uses a cutoff date other than April thirtieth, then the political subdivision may continue to do so as long as the same cutoff date is used for all of the agency's employees who occupy positions that are classified by human resource management services, and the two-hundred-forty-hour limit is observed.

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-09. Change of cutoff date.

Repealed effective July 1, 2004.

4-07-12-10. Pay during employment.

An employee may not be paid for unused annual leave while the employee remains in the service of the agency, except for the following reasons:

2. The employee goes on educational leave;
3. The employee moves to temporary employment; or
4. Human resource management services approves a written request from an agency for an exception to this section for a business-related reason.

When an employee is transferring from one agency to another, the employee must be paid for the difference in hours between what the employee has accumulated and the number of hours the gaining agency will accept. When an employee is leaving the service of the agency, the employee must be paid for all accrued hours of annual leave.

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective July 1, 1995; November 1, 1996; July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-11. Credit for temporary service.

A temporary employee who becomes regular must be given credit for the employee's length of service as a temporary employee for the purpose of determining the annual leave accrual rate provided there was no break in service beyond one year. An agency may not grant annual leave hours to a temporary employee.

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective November 1, 1996; July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-12. Annual leave and reemployment.

An employee who leaves ~~the employee's~~ employment and who is rehired within three years must be credited with the employee's previous years of continuous service for the purpose of determining the employee's annual leave accrual rate.

History: Effective September 1, 1992; amended effective July 1, 2008; 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-06-14; 54-44.3-12(1)

4-07-12-13. Assumption of accrued annual leave or an enhanced annual leave accrual.

A state agency appointing authority employing an individual from another state agency shall accept all or only a part of the employee's accrued annual leave hours the employee requests to transfer. If the individual granted an interagency transfer from another state agency was previously granted an enhanced annual leave accrual rate, the hiring agency may continue that enhanced rate only if the individual is hired into a designated hard-to-fill position, as defined in section 4-07-12-04. If the individual is not hired into a designated hard-to-fill position, the individual's annual leave accrual rate shall revert to the standard rate based on total years of qualifying service, as defined in section 4-07-12-04. State agencies ~~covered by the North Dakota merit system~~ shall accept all or a part of accrued annual leave hours that a human service zone the employee requests to transfer, if the employee occupies of a human service zone employee in a position classified by human resource management services.

4-07-20.1-01. Scope of chapter.

This chapter applies to regular employees.

History: Effective November 1, 1996.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12.2

4-07-20.1-02. Definitions.

The terms used throughout this chapter have the same meaning as in North Dakota Century Code chapter 54-44.3, except:

1. "Date of service" means the date the notice was mailed or transmitted by electronic means.
2. "Employer action" means an action taken by an appointing authority that affects a regular employee through a demotion, dismissal, suspension without pay, forced relocation, reduction-in-force, or reprisal.
3. "Forced relocation" means the involuntary transfer or reassignment of a regular employee from one work location in the state to another work location in the state that requires the employee to move to a different place of residence. Telecommuting and other alternative work location agreements are not considered forced relocations.
4. "Reduction-in-force" means the loss of employment by a regular employee as a result of a reduction in funding, lack of work, curtailment of work, or reorganization.
5. "Regular employee" means a person who has completed the probationary period and who is or was in a position classified by human resource management services at the time the employer action occurred.
6. "Reprisal" means an unfavorable employment-related action taken against an applicant or employee by an appointing authority for:
 - a. in good faith filing a complaint, testifying, assisting, appealing, or participating in an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or litigation;
 - b. opposing any unlawful discriminatory practice; or
 - c. appealing to human resource management services or the state personnel board; for exercising the employee's rights under the Public Employees Relations Act of 1985, North Dakota Century Code chapter 34-11.1 or North Dakota Century Code section 34-01-20; for testifying before a legislative committee; or for employees who request timely assistance under the employee assistance program.

7. "Waiver" means a written agreement between a regular employee and the appointing authority not to proceed with the agency grievance procedure and to permit an appeal to be made directly to human resource management services.
8. "Working days" means Monday through Friday exclusive of holidays.

History: Effective November 1, 1996; amended effective July 1, 2004; July 1, 2010; January 1, 2024; 1, 2026.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 34-11.1-04(5), 54-44.3-12.2

4-07-20.1-03. A regular employee may file a grievance regarding an employer action.

A regular employee may, in accordance with the respective agency's grievance procedure, file a grievance regarding demotion, dismissal, suspension without pay, forced relocation, reduction-in-force, or reprisal. A grievance must be processed through the agency grievance procedure prior to submitting an appeal to human resource management services, unless a waiver is agreed upon as provided for in section 4-07-20.1-05.

History: Effective November 1, 1996; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12.2

4-07-20.1-04. Commencement of agency grievance procedure - Time limitations.

The employee shall begin the agency grievance procedure within fifteen working days from the date of notice of the employer action, except in the case of reprisal. The date of service of the notice shall be considered to be the date the notice was mailed or the date transmitted by electronic means, or absent proof of the date of mailing or delivery through electronic means, the date of actual delivery. The agency shall prepare a certificate of service, or provide reliable means, to show proof of the date of mailing, transmittal by electronic means, or hand delivery. The employee grieving reprisal action shall begin the agency grievance procedure within fifteen working days from the date of the reprisal action. Failure to begin the procedure within time limitations may cause the employee to lose the right to appeal to human resource management services. The agency appointing authority or designee, for good cause shown, may waive the time limitations for filing a grievance. Good cause means those circumstances that reasonably and without any fault on the part of the grievant prevented the filing of a grievance in a timely fashion. In no event may a grievance be deemed timely after sixty days have elapsed from the date of the employer action.

History: Effective November 1, 1996; amended effective July 1, 2004; July 1, 2010.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12.2

4-07-20.1-05. Waiver of agency grievance procedure.

A waiver of the agency grievance procedure is allowed by mutual agreement of the employee and appointing authority. The waiver must be signed by both parties within fifteen working days of the employer action. Upon obtaining the waiver, the employee may appeal directly to human resource management services in accordance with section 4-07-20.1-08. An additional fifteen working days is not available if the requested waiver is denied.

History: Effective November 1, 1996; amended effective July 1, 2004; July 1, 2008.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12.2

4-07-20.1-06. A regular employee may appeal to human resource management services.

A regular employee may appeal an employer action to human resource management services if:

1. The employee has processed a grievance through the agency grievance procedure and is dissatisfied with the result;
2. The employee and the appointing authority have agreed to a waiver of the agency grievance procedure; or
3. The agency has not established a grievance procedure or has failed to respond to a grievance in a timely manner.

No other employer actions except as defined in this chapter or otherwise specifically provided by administrative rule are appealable to human resource management services.

History: Effective November 1, 1996; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12.2

4-07-20.1-07. Limitations for reduction-in-force appeal.

A regular employee may appeal a reduction-in-force only on the basis that the agency did not utilize a uniform comparative analysis as required by section 4-07-11-03 or that the reduction-in-force was conducted in a discriminatory manner that would violate the state's policy against discrimination as stated in North Dakota Century Code section 14-02.4-01. A former regular employee who was reduced in force may appeal a denial of reemployment only on the basis that the agency did not follow section 4-07-11-07 or that the denial of reemployment was conducted in a discriminatory manner that would violate the state's policy against discrimination as stated in North Dakota Century Code section 14-02.4-01. The assessment of whether an individual meets the qualifications necessary for successful performance shall remain with the agency.

History: Effective November 1, 1996; amended effective July 1, 2004.

General Authority: NDCC 54-44.3-12(1)

Law Implemented: NDCC 54-44.3-12.2

4-07-20.1-08. Procedure for appeals of employer actions to human resource management services.

1. The employee shall file the properly completed prescribed appeal form with the director, human resource management services. The appeal form must be mailed or transmitted by electronic means and must be received in the human resource management services office by five p.m. within fifteen working days of service of the notice of results of the agency grievance procedure or within fifteen working days from the date of the waiver. An additional fifteen working days is not available if the requested waiver is denied. The date of service of the notice shall be considered to be the date transmitted or delivered by electronic means. The agency shall prepare a certificate of service or provide reliable means, to show proof of the date transmitted or delivered by electronic means.
2. The director, human resource management services, shall within two working days submit a written request by electronic means to the director, office of administrative hearings, to conduct a hearing on behalf of the division and shall forward a copy of the appeal form to the appointing authority.
3. The administrative law judge shall initially consider whether the appeal was filed within required time limitations. If the administrative law judge determines the time limitations have not been met, the administrative law judge shall prepare an appropriate order dismissing the appeal, which shall be final, and provide a copy of it to the parties. The administrative law judge may, for good cause shown, waive the time limitations for filing an appeal. Good cause means those circumstances that reasonably and without any fault on the part of the appellant prevented the filing of an appeal in a timely fashion. In no event may an appeal be deemed timely after sixty days have elapsed from the date of the employer action.
4. The administrative law judge shall consider whether human resource management services has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the appeal and whether all rules and regulations were followed in the internal agency grievance process. If the administrative law judge is unable to establish whether human resource management services has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the appeal or whether the appropriate rules were followed, a hearing may be conducted to ascertain the facts related to those issues.

5. If the administrative law judge determines that human resource management services does not have jurisdiction in the matter of the appeal, the administrative law judge shall prepare findings of fact and conclusions of law, if appropriate; issue a final decision dismissing the appeal; and provide a copy of them to the parties.
6. If it is determined that human resource management services has jurisdiction over the appeal, the administrative law judge shall schedule a hearing. The administrative law judge shall conduct the hearing and related proceedings, receive evidence related to the issues, prepare findings of fact and conclusions of law, and issue a final decision.
7. The administrative law judge shall notify the employee and the appointing authority of the final decision by sending each of them a copy of the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and final decision. Notification shall be accomplished in the same manner as for notification of final orders required by subsection 3 of North Dakota Century Code section 28-32-39. The parties shall implement the final decision within any time periods specified by the administrative law judge.
8. The administrative law judge shall return the completed appeal file to human resource management services by electronic means.
9. Any party to the appeal may review the recordings of the hearing by making a request to human resource management services by electronic means.

History: Effective November 1, 1996; amended effective July 1, 2004; July 1, 2008; July 1, 2010; January 1, 2024.

4-07-20.2-07. Procedure for appeals of discrimination or reprisal to human resource management services.

1. A probationary or regular employee shall file the properly completed prescribed appeal form with the director, human resource management services. The appeal form must be delivered, mailed, or transmitted by electronic means and must be received in the human resource management services office by five p.m. within fifteen working days of service of the notice of results of the agency grievance procedure or within fifteen working days from the date of the waiver. An additional fifteen working days is not available if the requested waiver is denied. The date of service of the notice shall be considered to be the date the notice was mailed or the date transmitted by electronic means, or absent proof of the date of mailing or delivery through electronic means, the date of actual delivery. The agency shall prepare a certificate of service, or provide reliable means, to show proof of the date of mailing, transmittal by electronic means, or hand delivery.
2. An applicant shall file the appeal form by delivery, mail, or transmittal by electronic means, and the form must be received in the human resource management services office by five p.m. within fifteen working days of the service of notice of the agency appointing authority's response to the alleged discriminatory or reprisal action. The date of service of the notice shall be considered to be the date the notice was mailed or the date transmitted by electronic means, or absent proof of the date of mailing or delivery through electronic means, the date of actual delivery. The agency shall prepare a certificate of service, or provide reliable means, to show proof of the date of mailing, transmittal by electronic means, or hand delivery.

3. An employee in a nonclassified position may appeal claims of reprisal by filing the properly completed prescribed appeal form with the director, human resource management services. The appeal form must be delivered, mailed, or transmitted by electronic means and must be received in the human resource management services office by five p.m. within fifteen working days of service of the notice of results of the agency grievance procedure, or within fifteen working days of the date of the reprisal action if an agency does not have an established grievance process. When an employee is using an agency internal grievance procedure, the date of service of the notice shall be considered to be the date the notice was mailed or the date transmitted by electronic means, or absent proof of the date of mailing or delivery through electronic means, the date of actual delivery. The agency shall prepare a certificate of service, or provide reliable means, to show proof of the date of mailing, transmittal by electronic means, or hand delivery.
4. The director, human resource management services, shall within two working days submit a written request to the director, office of administrative hearings, to conduct a hearing on behalf of human resource management services and shall forward a copy of the appeal form to the affected appointing authority.
5. The administrative law judge shall initially consider whether the appeal was filed within required time limitations. If the administrative law judge determines the time limitations have not been met, the administrative law judge shall prepare an appropriate order dismissing the appeal, which shall be final, and provide a copy of it to the parties. The administrative law judge may, for good cause shown, waive the time limitations for filing an appeal. Good cause means those circumstances that reasonably and without any fault on the part of the appellant prevented the filing of an appeal in a timely fashion. In no event may an appeal be deemed timely after sixty days have elapsed from the date of the employer action.
6. The administrative law judge shall consider whether human resource management services has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the appeal and whether all rules and regulations were followed in the internal agency grievance process. If the administrative law judge is unable to establish whether human resource management services has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the appeal or whether the appropriate rules were followed, a hearing may be conducted to ascertain the facts related to those issues.
7. If the administrative law judge determines that human resource management services does not have jurisdiction in the matter of the appeal, the administrative law judge shall prepare findings of fact and conclusions of law, if appropriate; issue a final decision dismissing the appeal; and provide a copy of them to the parties.
8. If it is determined that human resource management services has jurisdiction over the appeal, the administrative law judge shall schedule a hearing. The administrative law judge shall conduct the hearing and related proceedings, receive evidence related to the issues, prepare findings of fact and conclusions of law, and issue a final decision.
9. The administrative law judge shall notify the employee or the applicant and the affected appointing authority of the final decision by sending each of them the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and final decision. Notification shall be accomplished in the same manner as for notification of final orders required by subsection 3 of North Dakota Century Code section 28-32-39. The parties shall implement the final decision within any time periods specified by the administrative law judge.
10. The administrative law judge shall return the completed appeal file to human resource management services.
11. Any party to the appeal may review the recordings of the hearing by making a request to human resource management services.

4-07-37-03. Administration of statewide leave sharing program.

1. The human resource management services division of the office of management and budget shall administer a state leave sharing program for ~~permanent~~ regular and probationary state employees. The program provides a mechanism for eligible employees to donate accrued annual and sick leave to an eligible employee who does not have available leave who is suffering from a ~~serious or extraordinary~~ severe, extreme, or life-threatening illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition. State employees also may donate accrued annual leave to another eligible employee who does not have available leave and who is caring for an eligible family member who is suffering from a severe, extreme, or life-threatening ~~serious or extraordinary~~ illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition.

2. The human resource management services division shall approve or disapprove each request for donated leave after consultation with the requesting eligible employee's agency administrator. The division shall track the amount of leave taken by eligible employees under the program.
3. All forms of leave available for use by the recipient must be used before using shared leave. Donated leave must be credited to the eligible employee in increments that may not exceed one month. An eligible employee may not use more than four months donated leave in any twelve-month period, and an eligible employee may not retain leave beyond the occurrence necessitating the leave. Leave that has been donated but remains unused beyond the qualifying occurrence must be returned to the donating employee.
4. All donated leave must be given voluntarily. An eligible employee may not donate more than five percent of the eligible employee's accrued sick leave hours per month. An eligible employee's donation of annual leave may not reduce their annual leave balance to less than forty hours. ~~All leave must be donated in full-hour increments.~~
5. An eligible employee may request and use donated annual leave or sick leave for the purpose of donating an organ or bone marrow.
6. An employee who has received a documented verbal or written warning for inappropriate use of annual or sick leave will not be eligible to receive donated leave without specific approval from the director of the human resource management services division.
